

Advocate's $1,000 College Scholarship

Deadline: March 1, 2022

Scholarship available to students who are United Methodists and are attending or rising freshmen at one of the four South Carolina UMC colleges: Claflin, Columbia College, Wofford or Spartanburg Methodist College.

Information Form

Checklist: [] Info form [] Essay [] Transcript [] Letter from pastor or chaplain

Applicant Information

Full Name: Last First M.I. Date:

Address: Street Address Apartment/Unit #

City State ZIP Code

Phone: Email

College you are attending (or will be this fall): Claflin University Columbia College Spartanburg Methodist Wofford College

(Note: Only those students of one of these four United Methodist colleges in South Carolina are eligible for this scholarship.)

Are you a member of a UMC or a campus ministry? YES NO Church/campus ministry name and city:

(Note: Students must be a member of or active with a United Methodist church or campus ministry to be eligible.)

What is your major?

(Note: Students should have an interest in business, communications or journalism.)

How did you hear about the Advocate?

How did you hear about this scholarship opportunity?

Essay

Please address your view of the role of journalism in ministry, how the scholarship would help you in pursuing a college degree, what you hope to do professionally, and any relevant information about your background and faith upbringing, including whether there is a specific financial need (continued next page):

Essay continued:

Please also provide a copy of your college (or high school) transcript, as well as a letter from the senior pastor of your home church or a college chaplain confirming you are a South Carolina United Methodist and describing your participation and contributions to the church or campus ministry. Attach or mail to Advocate, 4908 Colonial Dr., Columbia, SC 29203.

Deadline: March 1, 2022

Mail or email application and other items to:
Jessica Brodie, Advocate, jbrodie@umcsc.org or 4908 Colonial Dr., Columbia, SC 29203.